KIWANIS is a global organization of volunteers dedicated to changing the world one child and one community at a time.

APPLE FESTIVAL

Seven club members and 4 Key Club members took admission and tickets at the Apple Festival at Old Prairie Town. There was live music, food and arts and crafts vendors. Kiwanians participating were Ken, Mary, Tom Georgia, Mike, Larry and Diana.

BUSINESS IS PICKING UP

On October 23 eight Kiwanis members picked up litter along three miles of Highway 40. Those participating were Mike, Larry Diana, Doris, Tom, Mary, Ken, and Georgia. Under the auspices of the KDOT club members pick up litter three times per year.

PANCAKES AND FELLOWSHIP

The annual Tecumseh Kiwanis Pancake Feed and Silent Auction was held October 30. The beautiful fall day brought many people out to enjoy pancakes, sausage, eggs, coffee and juice. Treasurer Cindy reports, a profit of nearly $2,900. Approximately $1,800 from the Auction and $1,100 from the Pancake Feed. Proceeds were up from last year by nearly $300. We had help from 5 members of the SHHS Key Club. They served sausage, pancakes and drinks. We appreciate and welcome their participation.
